

Kineton Globe Trotters

human and physical geography of the world

Science

habitat: the natural environment of a plant or animal adaptation: a change that helps something to survive food chain: a series of living beings in which one is food for the next

Vocabulary List

continent	the earth's 7 major areas of land country	large area of land where people live together human features	things that are built by humans physical features	things that would exist if no humans were around city	large town where many people work and live town	medium sized area where people work and live village	small town, often in the countryside ocean	areas of water covering $\frac{3}{4}$ of the world's surface sea	areas of water, usually where land meets ocean climate	the usual weather conditions in a place landmark	feature of a place which is easily recognised/seen atlas	book of maps and information about countries