

Key Vocabulary
Precipitation	Water released from a cloud in the form of rain, sleet, snow or hail.
Evaporation	The process by which water changes from a liquid into vapour.
Condensation	The process by which water vapour forms clouds
Accumulation	The collection of water in the form of rivers, streams, lakes, seas and oceans.
Continent	A large area of land separated by water or other natural features, There are seven continents in total.
Ocean	A large body of salt water separating land. 71% of the earth's surface is water.
Water Cycle	The journey water takes as it moves from the land to the sky and back again.
Habitat	The natural home of a plant or animal, each with its own features.
Equator	An imaginary circle around the earth, dividing it into two equal parts.
Plastic pollution	The damaging effects of plastic on our natural environment
Hemisphere	Divided by the equator, the northern and southern hemisphere.

Claude Monet
1840 - 1926

Mount Everest - one of the tallest mountains in the world

Single-use plastics are used only once before they are thrown away or recycled. These items are things like plastic bags, straws, coffee stirrers, water bottles and most food packaging